

Cruisin' to a Good Time at Successful Open House

Artbeat Studio hosted a successful open house on Thursday November 19, 2009. The 'Cruise Ship' themed party featured fantastic decorations created by the 444 Kennedy Arts Centre, music by the resident artist Daniel Clark and the Barhouse Band with guest Patrick Lussier, prizes, and refreshments. The event was open to all residents of 444 Kennedy, as well as the Artbeat alumni community and friends.

The 444 Kennedy Arts Centre features two weekly events; at Creative Corner, alumni artists offer free workshops for tenants and Artbeat Alumni. The Artbeat Alumni Drop-In is open to all alumni artists who work independently in an open-space studio.
